

Privacy and Dignity Policy

1. Introduction

1.1 Purpose

This Policy and the Policies and Procedures and related documentation set out in section 1.5 below (Related Documentation) supports Behaviour Support 4 Kids to apply the Privacy and Dignity and Information Management NDIS Practice Standards.

1.2 Policy Aims

Behaviour Support 4 Kids is committed to ensuring each Client is treated with dignity and respect, can maintain their identity, make informed choices about their care and services, and live the life they choose.

In this regard, Behaviour Support 4 Kids is committed to ensuring it:

- (a) has a culture of inclusion and respect for consumers; and
- (b) supports consumers to exercise choice and independence; and
- (c) respects consumers' privacy.

1.3 NDIS Quality Indicators

In this regard, Behaviour Support 4 Kids aims to demonstrate each of the following quality indicators through the application of this Policy and the relevant systems, procedures, workflows and other strategies referred to in this Policy and the Related Documentation:

Privacy and Dignity

- (a) Consistent processes and practices are in place that respect and protect the personal privacy and dignity of each participant.
- (b) Management of each participant's information ensures that it is identifiable, accurately recorded, current and confidential. Each participant's information is easily accessible to the participant and appropriately utilised by relevant workers.
- (c) Each participant understands and agrees to what personal information will be collected and why, including recorded material in audio and/or visual format.

Information Management

- (a) Each participant's consent is obtained to collect, use and retain their information or to disclose their information (including assessments) to other parties, including details of the purpose of collection, use and disclosure. Each participant is informed in what circumstances the information could be disclosed, including that the information could be provided without their consent if required or authorised by law.
- (b) Each participant is informed of how their information is stored and used, and when and how each participant can access or correct their information, and withdraw or amend their prior consent.
- (c) An information management system is maintained that is relevant and proportionate to the size and scale of the organisation and records each participant's information in an accurate and timely manner.

Approval Date:	May 2022	Next Scheduled Review	May 2024

- (d) Documents are stored with appropriate use, access, transfer, storage, security, retrieval, retention, destruction and disposal processes relevant and proportionate to the scope and complexity of support delivered.

1.4 Scope

- (a) This Policy applies to the provision of all services and supports at Behaviour Support 4 Kids.
- (b) All permanent, fixed term and casual staff, contractors and volunteers are required to take full responsibility for ensuring full understanding of the commitments outlined in this Policy.

1.5 Related Documentation

The application of the above NDIS Practice Standard by Behaviour Support 4 Kids is supported in part by and should be read alongside the Policies and Procedures and related documentation corresponding to this Policy in the Policy Register.

- (e) financial information and billing details including information about the services individuals are funded to receive, whether under the NDIS or otherwise;
- (f) records of interactions with individuals such as system notes and records of conversations individuals have had with Behaviour Support 4 Kids's Workers; and
- (g) information about the services Behaviour Support 4 Kids provides to individuals and the way in which Behaviour Support 4 Kids will deliver those to individuals.

Approved By:	The Board of Behaviour Support 4 Kids Pty Ltd	Version	1
Approval Date:	May 2022	Next Scheduled Review	May 2024

Typically, Behaviour Support 4 Kids does not collect personal information in the form of recorded material in audio and/or visual format.

3.3 Sensitive information and protection of dignity

Behaviour Support 4 Kids only collects sensitive information where it is reasonably necessary for Behaviour Support 4 Kids's functions or activities and either:

- (a) the individual has consented; or
- (b) Behaviour Support 4 Kids is required or authorised by or under law (including applicable privacy legislation) to do so.

For example, in order to provide Behaviour Support 4 Kids's services to a Client or to respond to a potential Client's inquiries about services, Behaviour Support 4 Kids may be required to collect and hold their sensitive information including health and medical information and information relating to their disability and support requirements.

Behaviour Support 4 Kids will treat Clients with dignity and respect and as far as reasonably practicable protect the privacy and dignity of each Participant and, in particular, their sensitive information.

3.4 How Behaviour Support 4 Kids collects personal information

Behaviour Support 4 Kids collects personal information in a number of ways, including:

- (a) when individuals correspond with Behaviour Support 4 Kids (for example by letter, fax, email or telephone);

- (o) purposes for which an individual has provided their consent.
- (p) for research, evaluation of services, quality assurance activities, and education in a manner which does not identify individuals. If individuals do not wish for their de-identified data to be used this way, they should contact Behaviour Support 4 Kids.
- (q) to keep individuals informed and up to date about Behaviour Support 4 Kids's work, for example, changes to the National Disability Insurance Scheme or information about disability supports, either where Behaviour Support 4 Kids has their express or implied consent, or where Behaviour Support 4 Kids is otherwise permitted by law to do so. Behaviour Support 4 Kids may send this information in a variety of ways, including by mail, email, SMS, telephone, or social media.
- (r) where an individual has consented to receiving marketing communications from Behaviour Support 4 Kids, that consent will remain current until they advise Behaviour Support 4 Kids otherwise. However, individuals can opt out at any time.

3.6 What third parties does Behaviour Support 4 Kids disclose personal information to?

Behaviour Support 4 Kids may disclose personal information to third parties where appropriate for the purposes set out above, including disclosure to:

- (a) Behaviour Support 4 Kids's funding providers;
- (b) government and regulatory bodies, including the National Disability Insurance Agency, Medicare, the Department of Social Services, the Department of Health & Human Services, and the Australian Taxation Office;

Approved By:	The Board of Behaviour Support 4 Kids Pty Ltd	Version	1
Approval Date:	May 2022	Next Scheduled Review	May 2024

- (c) people acting on their behalf including their nominated representatives, legal guardians, executors, trustees and legal representatives;
- (d) the police, or to the Disability Services Commissioner, or to comply with compulsory notices from courts of law, tribunals or Government Agencies;
- (e) financial institutions for payment processing;
- (f) referees whose details are provided to Behaviour Support 4 Kids by job applicants; and
- (g) Behaviour Support 4 Kids's contracted service providers, including:
 - (1) information technology service providers
 - (2) invoice processing service providers
 - (3) marketing and communications service providers including call centres
 - (4) freight and courier services
 - (5) external business advisers (such as recruitment advisors, auditors and lawyers).

In the case of these contracted service providers, Behaviour Support 4 Kids may disclose personal information to the service provider and the service provider may, in turn, provide Behaviour Support 4 Kids with personal information collected from individuals in the course of providing the relevant products or services.

3.7 How is personal information stored and used?

- (a) Behaviour Support 4 Kids holds personal information in a number of ways, including in hard copy documents, electronic databases, email contact lists, and in paper files held in drawers and cabinets. Paper files may also be archived in boxes and stored offsite in secure facilities.
- (b) Behaviour Support 4 Kids must take reasonable steps to:
 - (1) make sure that the personal information that Behaviour Support 4 Kids collects, uses and discloses is accurate, up to date and complete and (in the case of use and disclosure) relevant;
 - (2) protect the personal information that Behaviour Support 4 Kids holds from misuse, interference and loss and from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure; and
 - (3) destroy or permanently de-identify personal information that is no longer needed for any purpose that is permitted by the Australian Privacy Principles, subject to other legal obligations and retention requirements applicable to Behaviour Support 4 Kids.
- (c) Behaviour Support 4 Kids Workers must only access and use personal information for a valid work purpose. When handling personal information, Workers should:
 - (1) confirm recipient details before sending faxes or emails;

Approved By:	The Board of Behaviour Support 4 Kids Pty Ltd	Version	1
Approval Date:	May 2022	Next Scheduled Review	May 2024

- (2) always store any hard copies of confidential information that is not being used in a secure cabinet or room;
 - (3) be aware of the surroundings and people nearby;
 - (4) limit taking hard copy information away from secure sites;
 - (5) secure information when travelling e.g. in briefcase, folder etc.;
 - (6) dispose unneeded copies of information securely; and
 - (7) ensure the information is available to people who need to access it.
- (d) Behaviour Support 4 Kids Workers may only share personal information as set out under this policy and in circumstances permitted under law.

3.8 How is personal information kept secure?

Behaviour Support 4 Kids ensures that the personal information is protected by security safeguards that are reasonable in the circumstances to take against the loss or misuse of the information.

The steps Behaviour Support 4 Kids takes to secure the personal information Behaviour Support 4 Kids holds include:

- (a) online protection measures (such as encryption, firewalls and anti-virus software);
- (b) security restrictions on access to Behaviour Support 4 Kids's computer systems (such as login and password protection) and cloud based storage (using Google Drive and OneDrive),
- (c) controlled access to Behaviour Support 4 Kids's premises
- (d) personnel security (including restricting the use of personal information by Behaviour Support 4 Kids Workers to those who have a legitimate need to know the information for the purposes set out above); and
- (e) training and workplace policies.

3.9 Information retention

Unless otherwise required by law, all Client records and personal information will be retained for at least seven years after a Client ceases to be a client.

3.10 Information disposal

- (a) Workers should ensure record retention requirements have been met prior to the disposal of any personal information.
- (b) When disposing of personal information, Workers should:
 - (1) Place unneeded working documents or copies of information in secure bins or adequate shredders.

Approved By:	The Board of Behaviour Support 4 Kids Pty Ltd	Version	1
Approval Date:	May 2022	Next Scheduled Review	May 2024

- (2) Ensure any electronic media including computers, hard drives, USB keys etc. are sanitised when no longer required.

3.11 Privacy incidents

Privacy incidents may result from unauthorised people accessing, changing or destroying personal information. Examples of situations from which incidents may arise include:

- (a) the accidental download of a virus onto a Behaviour Support 4 Kids computer;
- (b) discussing or sharing of personal information on a social networking website such as Facebook;
- (c) loss or theft of a portable storage device containing personal information;
- (d) non-secure disposal of hard copies of personal information (i.e. placing readable paper in recycle bin or hard waste bin);
- (e) documents sent to the wrong fax number or email address; and
- (f) documents sent to a free web-based email account such as Yahoo!, Gmail or Hotmail.

Privacy incidents can:

- (g) occur due to accidental or deliberate actions;
- (h) result from human error or technical failures; and
- (i) apply to information in any form, whether electronic or hard copy.

3.12 Incident reporting

It is vital all privacy incidents are reported as soon as possible so that their impact may be minimised. Employees should be aware of:

- (a) how to identify potential privacy incidents
- (b) the reason for reporting incidents is so their impact can be minimised - not to punish individuals
- (c) the need to report all incidents to their manager as soon as they become aware of them.

Behaviour Support 4 Kids must report all Client related privacy incidents to the:

- (a) Department of Health;
- (b) NDIS Commission
- (c) Office of the Australian Information Commissioner,

as applicable, within one business day of becoming aware of, or being notified of a possible privacy incident, or within one business day of an allegation being made of a potential breach.

A breach of Client privacy may have a major impact, a non-major impact, or be a near miss or an incident with no apparent impact on a Client. In each case, the incident has to be reported and managed in accordance with the Incident Management and Reporting Policy.

3.13 Access and Correction

Clients have a legal right to request access or correction of their personal information held by Behaviour Support 4 Kids.

Clients may ask individuals to verify their identity before processing any access or correction requests, to ensure that the personal information Behaviour Support 4 Kids holds is properly protected.

3.14 Complaints

If a Client has a complaint about how Behaviour Support 4 Kids has collected or handled their personal information, it will be managed in accordance with the Behaviour Support 4 Kids Feedback and Complaints Management System.

4. General

4.1 Relevant Legislation, Regulations, Rules and Guidelines

Legislation, Rules, Guidelines and Policies apply to this policy and supporting documentation as set out in the Legislation Register.

4.2 Inconsistency

If and to the extent that the terms of this Policy are or would be inconsistent with the requirements of any applicable law, this Policy is deemed to be amended but only to the extent required to comply with the applicable law.
